

Contents of Volume 25

- Appold StJ: The location processes of industrial research laboratories 131
- Beguín H, Ipanga T: Private versus public service location behaviour. The case of rural dentists 115
- Boyd R → Seldon BJ
- Cooke StC: The role of value added in benefit/cost analysis 145
- Evanoff DD, Israilevich PR: Regional differences in bank efficiency and technology 41
- Fik TJ → Mulligan GF
- Fujita M → Liu H-L
- Greenwood MJ, Mueser PR, Plane DA, Schlottmann AM: New directions in migration research. Perspectives from some North American regional science disciplines 237
- Ipanga T → Beguín H
- Israilevich PR → Evanoff DD
- Jehiel P: Polycentric spatial development, externalities and cost-benefit analysis 193
- Johansson B: Regional industrial analysis and vintage dynamics 1
- Liew CJ → Liew CK
- Liew CK, Liew CJ: A multiregional, multiproduct, household interactive, variable input-output model 159
- Liu H-L, Fujita M: A monopolistic competition model of spatial agglomeration with variable density 81
- Mueser PR → Greenwood MJ
- Mulligan GF, Fik TJ: A reply to A note on 'Price variation in spatial markets: the case of perfectly inelastic demand' 63
- Nijkamp P, Poot HJ, Rouwendal J: A non-linear dynamic model of spatial economic development and R&D policy 287
- Plane DA → Greenwood MJ
- Poot HJ → Nijkamp P
- Roson R: The adjustment of interregional input-output coefficients under heterogeneous price sensitivity. A linearized model 101
- Rouwendal J → Nijkamp P
- Salomon I, Schofer J: Transportation and telecommunications costs. Some implications of geographical scale 19
- Sasaki K: Interjurisdictional commuting and local public goods 271
- Schlottmann AM → Greenwood MJ
- Schofer J → Salomon I
- Schöler K: A note on "Price variation in spatial markets: the case of perfectly inelastic demand" 55
- Seldon BJ, Boyd R: An examination of the stability of regional lumber demand in the contiguous United States, 1950-1985 209
- Shieh Y-N: A note on heterogeneous demand and plant location 217
- Zhang W-B: Multiregional dynamics based on creativity and knowledge diffusion 179
